SIXTH INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION
OF THE
Mechanics' Institute,
SAN FRANCISCO
THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE MECHANics Institute hereby give notice that the Sixth Industrial Exhibition of that Association will be held some time in August next in a building to be erected for the purpose in Union Square in this city. Every preparation will be made to accommodate exhibitors and visitors with a view to make the Exhibition profitable, instructive and pleasant to all parties.
During the three years which have intervened since the holding of the last Exhibition in this city the manufacturing, mechanical, scientific and useful and ornamental arts have made unprecedented progress on this coast, and it is believed that the proposed Exhibition will exceed any other in value that has ever been held on the shores of the Pacific.
The plan of building to be erected which has been adopted by the Board of Directors it is believed will prove to be the best adapted both for display and convenience of the public of any building ever erected in the State. The building will be perfectly water tight, being covered with a shingle roof so that no damage from the elements can be anticipated.
All parties who are interested in any of the branches of Manufactures, Mechanics, or the Arts and Sciences are invited to exhibit in the proposed Exhibition and to share in the publicity and consequent profit which always attends such enterprises. Suitable premiums will be offered, and the specific date of opening the Exhibition will be published at some future time.
By order of the Board of Directors.

Nasby has a Conversation with the President

WASHINGTON (D. C.) April 8, 1868.

I went to Washington for the purpose uv takin the advice uv Attorney General [illegible] whether in the event uv the impeachment uv the present President I cood be [illegible] out uv my Post Office before the 4th March 1869 when it occurred to me that I might hev some conversashen with his Exsellency for the purpose uv publishin the same in his papers uv Kentucky. As I wuz ushered into the presence and made known the fact that I wanted to talk with him he directed his Sekretary to furnish me with pens and paper that I might take down what he sed.

I found him kam and hopeful. There wuz in his eagle eye that [illegible] determination which hez made him the terror of his friends and the comfort uv his enemies; his firm set lips betoken the will that wuz behind em, and he wuz like a [illegible] defiance at the world.

Remark casually I sed he that the radikle majority seem determined upon impeachment.

I did so when he replied in these words:

Yes, they do. And why I cannot understand. Never wuz there a man [illegible] in this or any other world who wanted peece more than I hev. I hev sighed for it and done everything in my power for it but they wood not hev peese. In the beginnin they talked up [illegible] me to resume [illegible] the triflin egsilerashen I wuz laborin under on the occashen uv my inawgerashen, forgettin it wuz the man and not the Vice President that wuz drunk. Then agin I wanted the restorashen of the South accomplished accordin to my views uv wat wuz proper, and here agin their onreasenableness wuz made painfully manifest. They cood hev hed peece. There wood hev been no trouble whatever hed they yielded to me and acksepted the policy I hed agreed upon. But they wood not. The entire Congris uv the Yoonited States and the entire people uv the so-called loyal States wickedly set theirselves to opposin it me after I hed solemnly warned em uv the consekenses that must inevitably foller. They brought it on and theirs is the blame. It wood be well to ask me here, how about the Memphis and Noo Orleans massacres and the Kuk Klux Klan.

I did this and the President went on:

The unfortunit okkurrences in Memphis and Noo Orleans wuz the result uv the same spirit developed in the people uv the South who opposed the Confederacy. They knew what I desired. For the sake uv peace, to wipe out all traces uv the late onpleasentnis, I decided that everything shood be restored ez it wuz before ez near ez might be. My idea wuz to kiver things up. I hed promised the friends uv the late lost cos control uv their own States, and hed the misguided people wich hed stood in opposishun to the Confederacy yielded this one pint for the sake uv harmony all would hev bin well. The process wuz at once simple and sublime. In Noo Orleans Dr. Dostie and his adherents had only to turn over the control uv the city to Mayor Monroe and Judge Abell and there wood hev bin no massacre. But they wood not. They persisted in inflamin uv their high spirited opponents to the pint of plain agin em and the massacre wuz the result. What else cood they expect? I warned em in time but alas I wuz not heeded. In Memphis too, it wuz similar. The niggers wood persist in havin skool houses and carryin spellin books about with em knowin that every time they did it they wuz inflamin uv the Southern heart and firin the Southern sole. I had them warned, too, but to no purpose. Instead uv quietin things down by givin up their obnoxious pursoots they persevered and the result is a part of history. In the irritated condishen of the Southern mind, smartin ez it wuz under the consheusnis uv defeat, it cood not be expected that they should look on quietly and see nigger children in nigger skool houses, learnin that which wood onfit em from fillen the posishen uv niggers as they understood it. To the infatooated people uv the North who egged on the niggers uv Memphis and Noo Orleans to this attempt to raise theirselves out uv the normal sphere into wich they wuz left by the constitooshen must all the blame for this lamentable okkurrence now and forever attach. The Kuk Klux Klan is another development uv the same spirit prodooced by similar causes and eventuatin in the same results. The niggers insted uv humbly pursooin the even tenor uv their former ways and bowing meekly to the superior power uv them which wuz formerly their masters, is inflated to the very pint uv takin wat I sed to em four years ago in dead earnest, and believin theirselves to be men. They persist in votin and in holdin meetins and sich, and uv course the Caucashens uv the South can't tolerate it. The murder uv these innocent niggers by the men uv the South is another manifestation uv Radical hate and malignity. Had they conseled them to continy on in that meekness the humility and humbleness uv wich is so lovely in the nigger, there wood hev bin no Kuk Klux and the hair, or to speak more [illegible], the wool uv the head of no one uv em wood ever hev bin harmed exceptin when the high sperited sons uv the South after an unwonted indulgence in flowin bole, mite in a playful, sportive mood occasionally shoot or stab a dozen or sich a matter uv em. They hev brot it upon theirselves. Ask me now about Grant, Sherman and them.

I did so and the President ansered promptly, enforcing his remarks with appropriate jesters.

I alluz reposed great confidence in Grant. For a long time he wuz wonderfully reticent uv wich I didn't take no notis for ez it wuz incomprehensible to me how any one cood differ with me. I supposed he wuz true to me and the constooshen. I never lost faith in his patriotism till he meanly and blindly commenst opposin me, and then I resigned him reluctantly. But he finally went over. Wat an awful thing it is that one who hed won sich laurels as he hed—who hed made sich a name, shood throw it to the earth by one false step. But so it wuz with Grant. He had rendered me valooable assistance in puttin down the rebellion and hed [illegible] ez touch for the constitooshen ez I hed, but he ruined hisself after all. Sheridan opposed me from the beginnin, thus layin hisself out for all time. Howard ez [illegible] with the same stake wuz in advance uv him. Sherman, Sickles and the great majority uv the Generals who served did likewise. Rosseau and Steedman remained troo and Hancock wuz finally persuaded to stand by the ship uv State but the rest uv em persisted in plungin the country into dissension and trouble by opposin me. When I think of how they rooined theirselves—uv what a ridiculous figure they will cut in history ez my opponents I can't avoid droppin a bitter tear or two. It would be well to put in here, "The President was visibly affected."

The removal uv Stanton and the appointment uv Thomas in his sted is what these disorganizers, these concentrators who oppose me, that the Government may be concentrated into their hands, must I uv being diffoorced there mine chiefly depended upon. What is their [illegible]? Stanton wuz opposed to me and I laborin for that unity that [illegible] without wich no Government kin go on satisfactorily to the head thereof removed him. How kin the Government go on with anybody opposin me?—if nobody opposed me ther wood be no disputes. The people must understand this that they may put the blame whar it belongs. I hev no objeckshun to say now that to bring about harmony and peace—I wood, if I cood, remove Congress that the struggle between us might be ended. But no one can object to my removin Stanton. Will they say that the tenor uv offis act protected him? I shel answer to wunst that I hed decided that law to be onconstooshenal long ago and consekently it had no bindin onto me. I weep continyooally over the perversity uv the men who will continy only keep a passin laws which they know I will declare unconstooshenal.

Ez to the final result I hev nary a doubt. The people are with me. Look at their anxiety for my triumph and the sacrifices they are willin to make. Why over four thousand of my friends residin in Noo York were so anxious that my other friends in Connecticut shood succeed that they went all the way to Hartford and Noo Haven to vote. Wuz there ever sich patriotism displayed afore? Wuz his doubt when I asked hev sich adherents?

The President signified that he was done.

"Hadn't you better look over these notes," sed I, "there may be things you hev said wich you wood not like to hev publisht."

"No," sed he. "It don't matter ef I hev sed anything that I do not care to father. I kin easily deny it and Randall and Welles will swear I never sed it. Farewell. Be true to the Constooshen ez I understand it and the laws ez I understand em, and all will be well."

I left in a grateful feeling that ef he did whale his persekooters it won't be becoz he hezn't a sublime confidence in hisself.

(Wich is Postmaster.)

An Ecclesiastical Con[illegible]

[From the Independent.]

Simultaneously with the commencement of the great Impeachment trial in Washington, another trial was commenced in the British Parliament, which has proved scarcely second in interest to intelligent readers on this side of the Atlantic. The telegraph has put us in daily possession of the debates and votes in these two great struggles of the popular will with misused authority, as they have occurred in the Palace at Westminster and the Capitol at Washington; and as we have finished the speeches of Butler and Stanbery, we have continued on in the next column, reading with unabated interest the [illegible] of Gladstone and Disraeli made at the same time, more than three thousand miles apart. It is but three weeks since we made some editorial comment on the elevation of Mr. Disraeli to the premiership of the British Government, and now we have to comment on his decline and fall. The very first test vote to which he [illegible] resulted in his defeat by a majority so large that it is hardly possible that he can maintain himself in his post. His party came into power by boldly [illegible] the principle of their opponents, and [illegible] beyond them in extending the right of suffrage, just as the Democratic party here might gain a victory over the Republicans, by voting in favor of universal suffrage [illegible] of sex. But the Tories having gained [illegible], the Liberals under the able leadership of Gladstone, have gained a triumph over them on the Irish Church question, which must place the reins of government once more in the hands of that party which corresponds in England with the Republicans in the United States—the party of progress, of freedom and of humanity. The conflict between the Tories and the Liberals on the Irish Church question is not a new one by any means. The preliminary skirmishings and contests have been going on for many, many years, but the closing battle was "short, sharp and decisive," and the necessity for prompt and bold action was so great that measures were taken which a few months since no leader in Parliament would have dared to inaugurate. It was a time for statesmanship and the Liberals were fortunate in a leader who was equal to the occasion. On the 23d of March Mr. Gladstone presented a series of resolutions in the House of Commons, substantially to the effect that the Irish Church should be disssevered from all connection with the government, and that the revenues which it had so long enjoyed should be employed for the benefit of the Irish people. This was the most radical and revolutionary measure that had been proposed in Parliament since the time of the Duke of Wellington's Emancipation Act, and the Tories were so unwilling to meet it squarely that they tried to postpone the discussion of it until the [illegible] of the next Parliament. It had been ably and hotly discussed by John Bright, Stanley, Gladstone, Disraeli and other prominent members. Last week was wholly occupied with the [illegible] the great struggle ending on Friday night [illegible] on Saturday morning, at 3 o'clock, when on the motion of Lord Stanley to postpone the [illegible] until the meeting of the next Parliament [illegible] hundred votes, three hundred and thirty [illegible] given against the ministry. Immediately afterward the House went into Committee of the Whole, and Mr. Gladstone's resolution was passed by nearly as large a majority. The Commons then adjourned for the Easter holidays, and what the next step will be, whether the ministry will resign or not, we can only [illegible]. But the important point to know is that a forward step has been taken, from which there can be no retreat, toward the complete [illegible] of what is called the Irish Church [illegible] the fostering care of the government. The Times most happily designates it "the removal of a cancer from the empire." How this severance of the Irish church and state is to be [illegible] and in what manner the vast endowments of the church are to be appropriated, will be questions for the next administration to determine.

Our interest in the matter, on this side the Atlantic ceases when the removal of the cancer is determined upon; for we know then that the patient will rapidly begin to recover. [illegible] will very naturally immediately begin to ask why, if it is proper to remove an ecclesiastical cancer from Ireland it can be necessary to allow one to remain in England. English Dissenters are not quite so violent in their opposition to the Establishment as Irish Catholics have been, but they are not less determined and they will gain [illegible] strength from this successful exploit of the Liberals and the next cancer to be [illegible] will be one nearer home. In Mr. Disraeli's [illegible] in the course of the discussion, he [illegible] with extraordinary fluency and with brilliant [illegible] in favor of religious endowments, and the necessity of a connection between church and [illegible] in order to preserve the religion of [illegible]. He contended that without state endowments there would be no religion; but it required [illegible] degree of audacity to make such a [illegible] very Establishment in whose defence he was laboring was a monstrous reproach to his [illegible]. The Catholics in Ireland have had no [illegible] endowments from the state, [illegible] the time of Queen Elizabeth [illegible] yet they have flourished like a green bay tree, while the Established Church, which has been triply endowed with honors, wealth and titular dignities, has not [illegible] her in its fold one eighth part of the [illegible].

Outrage on Decency.

[From the Salem Daily Record.]

Among the [illegible] of [illegible] in Oregon is the Albany Democrat, whose editor professes to possess christian as well as Democratic virtues, and furnishes [illegible] at times, with long-winded exordiums [illegible] ing the path of duty—moral as well as civil. Among the choice literary productions contained in the last issue of the Democrat we find an article copied from an [illegible] ridiculing the proclamation of Gov. [illegible] for a day of fasting, April 15, which it styles the anniversary of Lincoln's advent into hell. Never was the decency the Democrat prates of more foully violated than in this article, and only because [illegible] hand, and a [illegible] for [illegible] rumors of Democracy, would we pollute our columns with such hideous blasphemy [illegible] the nation's greatest martyr.

What! fast and pray over the death of the most filthy blackguard brutal murderer and [illegible] lous tyrant that ever disgraced [illegible]?

Never!

Fast and pray over the demise of the tyrant that presumed to strike the first blow at the bulwark of civil liberty—the hope of the [illegible] life of his country!

No! No! No! NO!

Let the soft and sulphury breezes of Hades waft him quietly through the lakes of boiling brimstone.

Don't disturb his sweet [illegible].

It is useless to starve your stomach or hash for one day in every year because Lincoln is in hell.

It is useless to pray to extricate him.

Saltpetre wouldn't save him.

The spirit which dictated to the author to write that article and the Albany Democrat to reprint it is damnable if used towards the vilest miscreant who ever went to his long [illegible] but it is more than vile—it is hideous when applied to one whom the [illegible], and the virtuous and good among his own countrymen cherished in memory as the equal of Washington, whose nature was neither selfish nor ambitious and whose heart [illegible] to relieve misery wherever it existed, and never could cherish malice toward a foe. When Lincoln's defamers are dead—yes, and damned—when the present has been long merged into the past and the [illegible] records and verdicts of time [illegible] rendered, then the grateful hearts of earth's enlightened and enfranchised millions, will cherish the name and honor the memory of our martyred President while they must execrate his defamers.

We notice this vile paragraph because we [illegible] and fear that the great majority of the [illegible] will [illegible] read it with pleasure. Still they may deny the gratification they feel. Also because the very next line below it reads "Vote for J. S. Smith." Democrats are invited to read this [illegible] and then invited to vote for J. S. Smith. There may be a more intimate connection between the two than we know of, but this much is manifest, that the writers and readers of all such literature will all vote for J. S. Smith.

Advance on the Whole Line

The parties now stand face to face as they did during the war. One party is composed of the loyal strength of the country which conquered the rebellion, the other is composed of those who in 1861 declared against preserving the Union, and who in 1864 pronounced the contest, then already won, a failure. The party calling itself "Democratic" is now leagued with the conquered enemies of the country, as it was then leagued with defiant traitors, its object then and now being alike dangerous to the peace and future security of the nation. Every "Democratic" triumph raises the hopes of the rebels of the South, who still mourn for the lost cause, and who still expect to see the principles which it represented triumphant. Let Oregon give no encouragement to such hopes. A victory in June will prevent the "Democratic" party from making any fight worth the name in this State next fall. The whole country is going for Grant and Colfax, and as Oregon has the first voice she should raise the first shout of victory. Let us take our place in the van of the grand army, and keep it. No stragglers or laggards now!

Work

As election day approaches let there be no relaxation of vigilance or effort. Let no one grudge the labor; the reward will be great. The best spirit has, so far, animated the campaign; and confidence in a Union triumph has been growing stronger every day. If every Union man of Oregon will but give his time for the remaining few days to the work, success will be achieved by an astonishing majority. A vote for Logan will not only help to send a true man to Congress but it will also make our victory in the fall easier to win. That Grant and Colfax will be triumphantly elected no one doubts, but the election of Logan will be a damper on Copperhead hopes, especially in the Pacific States, and will help to put this faction out of their pain as speedily as possible. We can and will carry the Pacific States in November, and a victory here in June will contribute greatly to that result. Union men of Oregon, the eyes of our friends in the neighboring States are upon us; let us do our duty.

The "briefless barrister" seems to have pretty steady employment in writing letters, representing various characters, for publication in the Herald. He has written in the character of an Irishman, of a German, and of a native American; and now he is personating the "faithful child" of the holy Church of Rome, and administering reproof to the Archbishop of this Diocese "for concealing the truth," as he alleges, in the note relative to Mr. McCormick! The probability is that he will next assume the character of a Methodist and anathematize all the brethren, ministerial and lay, of that denomination, for refusing to vote for Rev. Joseph Smith. He says his pen "is a facile one," and by his own showing his piety is also very remarkable. In fact, from the Pharisaical tone of his late productions, his piety seems to be quite as "facile" as his pen. In the role he is now playing, he is praying for grace, meekness, charity and humility. The probability is that he will soon again make his appearance in print in a communication in the Brick Pomeroy style about the "hateful, infernal, stinking nigger." Your "facile" Democratic chaps can do astonishing things!

"Col." John S. Preston of Columbia county (S. C.) has written a letter strongly urging upon his rebel confreres the policy of acting with the "Democratic" party of the country. His advice is rendered the more valuable both to Democrats and rebels by the reason he gives for it. He says he will do "his best for the purposes of the 'Democratic' party, which purposes are to make one more effort to regain our lost liberty, this time by peaceful action." And to make his meaning more explicit, he says his "heart and soul are as ardently in this effort as they were in the glorious one which God inscrutably allowed to fail." This process of identifying the two efforts—the armed one "which God allowed to fail," and the one which the Democracy propose to achieve "this time by peaceful action," will of course warmly commend the movement to the believers in the "time honored principles!"

Beriah writes an article which he entitles "Radical Honor," in the course of which remarks in his usual vein of self-praise: "We never made a charge against any human being, white or black, without either opening our columns to his own defense, or failing, stating the grounds of said defense." In the case of your scurrilous attack on Mr. McCormick you did not open your columns to his defense, even at the personal request of the Archbishop, until you had been soundly thrashed and the defense had become so widely known that it was no longer an object to you to refuse the publication. This is Copperhead honor.

The California papers are pitching into each other about the Chinese question. Those of Copperhead proclivities of course attempt to make party capital out of it. One of them says: "Nobody but a fool can expect a decent white man, or woman, to work in competition with a filthy creature who can subsist upon garbage which would turn the gorge of a turkey buzzard." A Republican paper replies: "Now this may be so; but did not Governor Haight lately eat with, sup with, and preside over a dinner given to these filthy creatures?" And did he not welcome them on their mission among us?

Every day we receive assurances that our friends all over the State are earnestly and heartily at work. Let them keep it up, bating not a jot of hope or heart till the close of the first day of June, and they will be well paid for their labor. Friends of the national cause, supporters of Grant and Colfax, is there not something more that each of you can do? Exercise! Do your duty then. Union men, we address you, and you, and you.

A vote for LOGAN is a vote for GRANT.

Bring on your Pendletons!

The ticket which has been presented for the suffrages of the people by the representatives of the National Union Republican party assembled at Chicago, is one which challenges the admiration and awakens the pride of all the tried friends of the Union and of liberty. These two names represent the tried principles, the great achievements, the living energy, the working forces, the future objects of the party. Their election will settle all the differences growing out of the war and work out all the adjustments necessary to future peace. The issue to be tried now is whether the Union party was right or wrong in putting down the rebellion. The opposite party have declared for Pendleton, and this action on their part brings the two parties to the status which they occupied in 1864. It arrays loyal men on one side and disloyal men on the other. We use these terms in the sense in which General Grant uses them. By the term loyal people, said he, "I mean those who supported the Government during the great rebellion." This, then, explains the nature of the contest of 1868. Do the people of Oregon want the man for President who appealed to the nation to "let the seceding States depart in peace and work out their destiny and empire according to the wisdom which God had given them," or do they prefer for this high office the man who brought these States back to the Union? Can the answer to this question be for a moment doubtful? General Grant was nominated by the spontaneous action of the people. The popular tide was irresistible. Politicians were powerless to check it. He is called, therefore, to be a candidate by the united voices of all "who supported the Government during the great rebellion," and by them he will be placed triumphantly in the highest seat in the nation.

What other nomination for the second office could have been so satisfactory as that of Schuyler Colfax? He is pre-eminently a statesman of comprehensive views, and by his talents, experience and integrity, is qualified beyond most other men to fill the station to which he is destined to be elevated. Possessing a national reputation as one of the purest public men of the age, he will adorn an office which has been filled by the highest talent of the country. Especially in the Great West will his name add strength to the ticket and to the cause. He is identified prominently with all Western interests, and no man has exhibited a clearer appreciation of the wants of the country, or broader views as to the means of contributing to them. He was a steadfast friend of the homestead law and a persistent advocate of a Pacific Railroad in times when those measures needed support. To his early and unflinching efforts the West is more indebted than to any other man for the railway which is soon to unite the extremes of the continent. With such nominees as the Convention has presented the Union party goes with confidence into the struggle. To the opposite party we say, just come on with your Pendletons or Seymours or any others whom you suppose to be the true representatives of the "time-honored principles" under which the country went to pieces during the Administration of your last President! We are ready to try the issue with you.

The New York Sun says it has been stated on positive authority that John C. Breckinridge is living in New York in disguise and under an assumed name, and has been there for nearly a year. If this is so, he is probably waiting there for the "formation of the legions and the inauguration of the grand national Democratic civil and military movement now on foot throughout the United States," of which notice is given by the La Crosse Democrat and other papers. It has been supposed that the object of Uriah Brown's last trip to San Francisco was to procure instructions and means for organizing this "grand movement" in Oregon.

A "Democrat," according to the modern acceptation of the term, is one who believes that a monopoly right should be conferred on conquered traitors.

Prepare for great Union demonstration on Monday night.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—By order of the Union State Central Committee, a salute of 100 guns will be fired this evening in honor of the nomination of General Grant for the Presidency.

This morning a lumber lighter went on the rocks at Fort Point.

Nicholas Fisher has sued Adam Menges and his wife to recover $5,000 damages for alleged slander.

H. Sullivan, administrator, sues the Central Pacific Railroad Company, to recover $50,000, for alleged killing of Humphrey Sullivan by one of its trains last June.

D. O. McCarthy, formerly proprietor of the American Flag, has opened a hotel in this city.

The steamer Sacramento will sail for Panama to-morrow. Most of the delegates to the Democratic Convention will take passage on her.

Martin Ryan was fined to-day for tampering with a juryman in the Wm. McGill forgery and larceny case.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—Last night one of the Turk street cars, belonging to the Central Railroad, ran over and instantly killed Wm. Largin, a boy about eight years old. There are no conductors on that portion of the road, and the driver was inside the car collecting fares when the accident occurred. The driver, Nathan D. Ford, was arrested for manslaughter, and admitted to bail to-day in the sum of $3,000.

A very large impromptu meeting of freedom's defenders was held at Congress Hall last evening, on the reception of the news that Grant and Colfax had been nominated. The meeting was addressed by Mr. Pixley, Dr. Cox, Capt. Scott, and others, and much enthusiasm was manifested.

At noon to-day a salute of 100 guns was fired, from Market street wharf, in honor of the nomination.

C. C. Denner was fined $100 for exhibiting obscene pictures to a little girl.

August Barnst was held in $1,000 bail to answer upon a charge of grand larceny.

The steamer Idaho, from Honolulu, arrived this afternoon. A number of earthquakes had occurred since the former advices, and the eruption of Mauna Loa still continued.

The steamer Sacramento sailed for China with a good number of passengers and $676,496 in treasure. The next for China will be the New York, to sail June 2d. She will take along a shaft for the Great Republic.

The steamer Japan, now on her way here from New York, is expected to arrive in time to take her place in the China line in July.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MAY 21.

Proceedings of the National Convention.

CHICAGO, May 20.—The National Republican Convention met at noon in Crosby's Opera House. Gov. Marcus L. Ward, Chairman of the National Committee, called the convention to order. He alluded in a brief speech to the circumstances under which they were assembled and the work for the convention to-day.

Bishop Simpson, of the M. E. Church, opened the proceedings with prayer, when, on motion of Mr. Ward, [illegible] Carl Schurz, of Missouri, was chosen temporary chairman, [illegible] Upon taking the chair Gen. Schurz made a speech [illegible] thanks for the high honor [illegible] the Republican party [illegible] the extinction of slavery. At the close of his speech he asserted the exercise of the right of [illegible] spirit would [illegible] passed [illegible] disapprove [illegible] awakened [illegible] The things we have accomplished are great, [illegible] may be [illegible] not allowed to be [illegible] Whoever may be our friend, whoever may become our enemy, let us steadily [illegible] determination to fulfill all the duties that [illegible] secure justice to the soldier who fought our battles [illegible] the Southern [illegible] Applause, justice to the colored [illegible] to whom we have promised [illegible] freedom. [Applause.] [illegible] the national credit, who has staked his credit [illegible] Applause. [illegible] to restore the [illegible] to a [illegible] of the party as well as outside of the party, and [illegible] Gen. Schurz took his seat amid [illegible] applause.

CHICAGO, May 21, 12 M.—Grant was nominated for President unanimously. The nomination for Vice President [illegible]

CHICAGO, May 21, [illegible] P. M.—Colfax was nominated for Vice President on the 5th ballot.

CHICAGO, May 20.—The Nickerson delegation is here contesting the seats of the Texas delegation from that State. When California was called to name a member of the Committee on credentials, somebody objected that she ought to have no committee man until the contest was decided. Sears denied that there was a contest. He fiercely denounced Nickerson, though not by name. He said he and his friends voted the Copperhead ticket last fall. He begged the Convention not to dignify [illegible] [illegible] Sears finally was called to order. The Convention voted that California should not participate in the Committee until after the contest was decided. Nickerson and Crane have seats on the floor by authority of the National Committee, but the Sears men will be permanently admitted on the ground of regularity.

All the committees were appointed and the Convention adjourned to 4 P. M., when a permanent organization will be effected. It seems probable that the business will be completed to-morrow afternoon.

CHICAGO, May 20.—The Convention re-assembled at 4 P. M. The committee on permanent organization reported Gov. Hawley of Connecticut as President, who was greeted with cheers. On taking the chair he briefly addressed the Convention in well-chosen, dignified words.

Gen. Sickles being vociferously called for, made brief remarks, but declined to occupy the time of the Convention.

Pending the complete organization, Gen. Fairchild, President of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, presented the resolutions adopted by that body yesterday, which were read and ordered to be incorporated into the official report of the proceedings.

Gov. Brown of Georgia was called out and made a speech in which he said he had fully and honestly accepted the situation and intended to exert all his energies and influence to assist reconstruction and carry out the policy adopted by Congress. He would steadfastly co-operate with the Republican party hereafter.

Committee on credentials reported that all Southern delegates be admitted to full privileges of membership. Only the regular delegates from California were admitted. Both sets of delegates from Maryland were admitted to seats, but only the Creswell delegates were allowed to vote. Each Territory was allowed two delegates, with the privilege of voting; also, the District of Columbia.

On motion of Gen. Van Zant the report of the Committee was so amended as to declare the name of the Republican party to be the National Union Republican. In the Committee and report it was simply the National Union party. The report was then adopted.

A resolution was adopted that all resolutions be referred to Committee on Resolutions without debate. Committee on Resolutions stated it would be ready to report to-morrow morning by 11 o'clock. The Convention then adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

The friends of the several candidates are all working actively in behalf of their favorites. Fenton has a strong lobby, and is said to be using money freely, especially with the Southern delegates. But to-night Fenton stock seems on the decline. Wade is probably the strongest on the first ballot, but many experienced judges think Hamlin's or Wilson's chances the best now.

CHICAGO, May 21.—The Chicago National Union Convention has closed its labors and adjourned. Crosby's Opera House was closely packed all day.

Pending the arrival of the committee on resolutions, it having been ordered yesterday that the adoption of a platform should precede the nominations, several distinguished gentlemen were called upon to address the Convention. Mr. Hassaneck of Cincinnati was first called. He made quite an elaborate speech, setting forth the mean[illegible] and duties of the Republican party.

Gen. Palmer was next called upon. He made an eloquent impromptu speech, which was enthusiastically applauded. Other gentlemen were called upon amid considerable confusion, and finally Gen. Cochrane was called upon. He was about to ascend the platform when the Committee on Resolutions appeared and Cochrane gave way.

Mr. Thompson, of Indiana, Chairman of the Committee, ascended the platform and read the resolutions as follows:

The Platform:

1st. We congratulate the country on the assured success of the Reconstruction Policy of Congress [Applause] as evidenced by the adoption in a majority of States lately in rebellion, of Constitutions securing equal, civil and political rights to all (applause), and we regard it as the duty of the government to sustain these Constitutions, and prevent the people of such States from being remitted to a state of anarchy or military rule. [Applause.]

2d. The guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men in the South was demanded by every consideration of public safety, gratitude and justice, and must be maintained; while the question of suffrage in all loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States.

3d. We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime (immense applause) and national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to our creditors at home and abroad, not only according to the letter, but spirit of the laws under which it was contracted. [Long continued applause.]

4th. It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit. [Applause.]

5th. The national debt, contracted as it has been for preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period, and it is our duty to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done. [Applause.]

6th. That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to so improve our credit that capitalists will seek to lend money at lower rates of interest than we now pay and must continue to pay so long as repudiation, partial or total, open or covert, is threatened or suspected. [Applause.]

7th. The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy. The corruptions which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson, call loudly for radical reform. [Loud cheers.]

8th. We profoundly deplore the untimely and tragic death of Abraham Lincoln and regret the accession of Andrew Johnson to the Presidential chair, who has acted treacherously to the people who elected him and the cause he was pledged to support, who has usurped high legislative and judicial functions, has refused to execute the laws, has used his high office to induce other officers to violate the laws, has employed his Executive power to render insecure the lives, property, peace and liberty of citizens, has abused the pardoning power, has denounced the National Legislature as unconstitutional, has persistently and habitually resisted by every means in his power, every attempt at the reconstruction of the States lately in rebellion, has perverted public patronage into an engine for wholesale corruption, has justly been impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors, and has been pronounced guilty thereof by the votes of 35 Senators. [Applause.]

9th. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers that, because a man is once a subject he is always so, must be resisted at every hazard by the United States as a relic of feudal times not authorized by the law of nations and at war with our national honor and independence. Naturalized citizens are entitled to be protected in all their rights of citizenship as though they were native born. No citizen of the United States or naturalized must be liable to arrest or imprisonment by any foreign power for acts done or words spoken in this country, and if so arrested and imprisoned, it is the duty of the Government to interfere in his behalf.

10th. Of all who were faithful in the trials of the late war, there were none more entitled to special honor than brave soldiers and seamen who endured hardships of camp and cruise and imperiled their lives in the service of their country. The bounties and pensions appropriated by law for these brave defenders of the Union are obligations never to be forgotten. [Applause.] The widows and orphans of the gallant dead are wards of the people, a sacred legacy bequeathed to the United States for protecting care. [Applause.]

11th. Foreign immigration in the past has added so much to the wealth and increased resources of this nation, the asylum of all nations, that it should be fostered by a liberal and just policy.

12th. This Convention declares its sympathy with all oppressed people who are struggling for their rights.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The following additional resolutions were offered and adopted by Mr. Thompson:

Resolved, That the adjournment of this Convention shall not work dissolution of the same, but it shall remain as organized subject to be called together at any time or place that the Republican Executive Committee shall designate.

By Carl Schurz: Resolved, We highly commend the spirit of magnanimity and forgiveness the men who have served the rebellion and who are now frankly and honestly cooperating with us in restoring peace to the country and in the reconstruction of Southern States on the basis of impartial justice and equal rights, and are received back into the communion of loyal people and that we are in favor of the removal of the disqualifications or restrictions imposed on the late rebels in the same measure as the spirit of disloyalty disappears, as may be consistent with the safety of loyal people.

Resolved, That we recognize the great principles laid down in the Declaration of Independence, as the true foundation of Democratic government, and we hail with gladness every effort towards making these principles the living reality on every inch of American soil.

The Nominations.

The Chairman announced that nominations were in order.

Mr. Logan said: In the name of the loyal citizens and soldiers and sailors of this great republic, in the name of loyalty, liberty, humanity and justice, in the name of the National Union Republican party, I nominate as candidate for Chief Magistrate of this nation Ulysses S. Grant.

The [illegible] was received with a perfect storm of applause and cheers. The roll of the States was called, each State casting its vote solid for Grant. Stroud [illegible] cast the vote of California. He said [illegible] [illegible] cheers, and thousands of [illegible] to cast a vote for Grant. Six [illegible] for Lincoln [illegible]

Nominations for Vice President were then in order. [illegible] nominated Senator Wilson. Indiana nominated Ben Wade. New York nominated Fenton. Maryland nominated ex-Senator Creswell. Pennsylvania nominated Curtin. Iowa nominated Harlan. Kansas nominated Pomeroy. Kentucky nominated Jas. S. Speed.

The first ballot resulted: Wade 149, Fenton 125, Wilson 119, Colfax 115, Curtin 51, Hamlin 28, Harlan 16, Speed 22, Creswell 14. The second ballot, Wade received 170, Fenton 140, Wilson 112, Colfax 145, Curtin 40, Hamlin [illegible]. California voted for Wade 5, Fenton 2, Wilson 1, Colfax 2. On the fifth ballot a break occurred in favor of Colfax, Iowa leading off, followed by Pennsylvania, and then falling rapidly into line until the nomination was made unanimous. Wade's strength had gradually increased until it became evident that the contest was between these two. The Convention very soon adjourned.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The Senate is not in session. No quorum. The House adjourned without transacting any business. Nothing will be done this week because so many members having gone home.

CHICAGO, May 19.—The Republican's Washington special says that recent developments give the strongest encouragements that when another vote is taken, the necessary number of Senators will vote for conviction on the second and some other articles.

CHICAGO, May 21.—The Tribune special says the Impeachment Managers have examined the examination of witnesses in regard to alleged improper means used to influence the votes of Senators on the impeachment. The testimony was given that Ross stated that he believed the President clearly guilty as charged in the 11th article. Henderson and Wilson express the belief that conviction will be secured on any other articles than the 1st, 2d or 11th.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Senator Henderson was examined by the Impeachment Managers yesterday. He said the Missouri delegation called on him and urged impeachment from a party point of view. He informed them that his letters were in relation to political affairs, and when Henderson consulted with them [illegible] the impeachment said he would resign his seat. After reflection he concluded that the action would be wholly unauthorized and would not be committed. He said he believed there that members intended to apply the influence thus to vote. He thought that they had taken a false and erroneous view of the subject and were at first inclined to pursue it with too much zeal. He was asked as to dining with the Chief Justice. He said he was only one of the fourteen Senators reported who had dined with him. He had no communication with the Chief Justice with reference to the reported new party. Never had the Chief Justice ever attempted to influence his mind on the subject of impeachment, nor did he believe the Chief Justice tried to influence the mind of any Senator. Henderson said in his judgment the controversy between Johnson and Congress springs from the advice of an incompetent Cabinet. A selection of more able and less selfish men from either or both parties would tend to give peace to the country and restore confidence to business. He stated that no assurance of any character whatever has been made directly or indirectly to him by the President or to any one else so far as he knew. After giving his evidence he protested against the right of the committee to examine him in matters relating to Senators. He said he would not attend again until he had laid the case before the Senate.

In the Senate Henderson said he had been required to attend before the board of impeachment Managers to testify in regard to the subject of their investigation. He read his answer declining to comply with their request because the matter was calculated to deprive the Senate of the proper control over its own affairs. He now submitted the question to the Senate.

Pomeroy said he had received a similar notice and had testified, not supposing that he had compromised the dignity of the Senate.

Sumner, following in the same strain, said it was possible another article might be founded on the evidence now being taken.

Davis' resolution was then taken up. It refers to the action by certain parties reflecting on the integrity of members of the Senate, and calls for the appointment of a committee to investigate. A long discussion ensued, during which the Senate went into Executive session. House no quorum. Adjourned to Saturday.

Tomb Desecrations.

BOSTON, May 20.—The tomb in the old burying ground at Danvers holding the remains of General Israel Putnam and his family for several generations was broken into by some parties who stole the silver plates from the coffins, broke the coffins open and took the skeletons of the dead and sold them to a manufactory of bone work. Some of the thieves have been arrested.

Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention.

CHICAGO, May 19.—The soldiers and sailors Convention met to-day. Some 2,000 delegates were in attendance. The greatest interest was manifested in the proceedings. Speeches were made by Gen. Sickles, Gen. Logan, Col. Stokes of Tennessee, Gov. Fairchilds, Gov. Hawley, Gen. Grant's father and others. The resolutions declare for Grant for President, and denounce the seven Republican Senators for voting against impeachment in the Senate. The meeting was most enthusiastic throughout.

Claims Against Mexico.

NEW YORK, May 19.—At a recent meeting of eminent capitalists interested in claims against Mexico, at which parties were present from Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, Baltimore, Washington, New Orleans and other cities of the United States, resolutions were adopted authorizing Gen. Steedman to take such measures as shall bring the matter before the United States and the Mexican governments in such a way as may lead to the prompt adjustment of such claims. It is understood that these claims amount to about ten millions of dollars, and it was stated at the meeting that while Romero was cancelling the English and Spanish obligations of the Mexican Government he was ignoring those of American citizens. The matter will be pushed with energy.

Massachusetts Legislature.

BOSTON, May 17.—The Senate refused to pass the bill to abolish the State constabulary over the Governor's veto.

From Mexico.

NEW YORK, May 19.—The Herald's advices from Acapulco say Gov. Alvarez had levied a forced loan of $60,000, and had taken the field. He had advanced via Sierra, according to last accounts, to attack Chipago in the State of Guerrero.

Romero is reported to have pronounced in favor of Ortega.

At Orizaba a grand Masonic banquet was held to celebrate the anniversary of the victory over the French at Puebla in 1862.

The telegraph is completed between Heroda and Tamuli-as.

The budget of the war and navy departments were rejected by Congress.

Cezarabell had been set at liberty.

Tabasco is in a state of revolution, notwithstanding the Government reports to the contrary.

West Indies.

NEW YORK, May 21.—A Port au Prince letter says the pillage of the town has taken place. P. Hepburn, a native of Virginia, was shot and severely wounded in his own store. The house of Mrs. Hamilton, an old lady, was riddled with balls, although the American flag was raised over the door.

A singular disease prevails among cattle at Springfield, Illinois. Two hundred cattle, mostly milch cows, died in that vicinity very suddenly. The disease is extending. Medical men are investigating the matter.

Western Union telegraph stock 37¾.

HAVANA, May 21.—A severe storm prevailed yesterday. Several lives were lost in the harbor. Many vessels dragged anchor.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, May 21.—The Government has forbidden the deposition of Bishop Colenso.

VIENNA, May 21.—The Emperor has given his assent to the law establishing legal equality of religious sects.

It appears by the dispatches that Senator Cameron is bringing up charges against Col. Forney, relative to the accounts of the latter as Clerk of the Senate. Some time ago Forney was charged with being a defaulter, but the Committee of Investigation appointed by the Senate reported his accounts correct. The Disbursing Clerk of the Senate under Forney, it is said, lost $30,000 a short time ago by speculating in stocks, which sum Forney was accountable for. The fact coming to Forney's knowledge, he at once discharged the Disbursing Clerk, appointed a new one, and with the aid of his friends, immediately replaced the missing funds. There is an old feud between Cameron and himself which no doubt accounts for the persistency with which the former follows up this attack.

STATIONARY.—Those stylish Summer Suits, direct from New York, and for sale by Wm. Currier & Co., 103 Front street.

NEW YORK ITEMS.—We clip the following items from the Herald: Battery "L," 2d Artillery has made [illegible] orders and will leave for Sitka about the 1st of June.

We understand that Messrs. Macon & S[illegible] have a Saw Mill in the neighborhood of Fisher's Landing, which is approaching completion. It will be, when finished, the most [illegible] in the country. It is generally believed that [illegible] Mr. Howe, Walsh will [illegible] Messrs. [illegible] expected from Walla Walla in a few days. We understand he will stop a day or two with us. It is expected that an election will soon be ordered for Chief Engineer, it being understood that the newly elected Chief, Mr. [illegible] Hodge, will accompany his brother, the Colonel, in the capacity of chief clerk, in which case of course his resignation will be compulsory. On the 14th inst. Mr. W. W. Brown, of this place, lost a purse containing [illegible] in coin. For good reasons he was of the opinion that he had lost it on the wharf, where business had called him but a short time before. He searched the wharf diligently, but without success, and finally gave it up as irretrievably lost. Two days afterwards he was informed that Mr. J. B. Brouillette had been seen to pick up a purse on the wharf shortly after the time Mr. Brown had discovered his loss. Mr. Brown accordingly called upon Brouillette and told him he had lost a purse and that he had heard that he (Brouillette) had found one. Brouillette acknowledged having found a purse, but claimed that it was the property of his little boy, he having lost it a short time before. Not thinking the evidence, in many particulars probable, and easily believing the purse that was picked up to be his, Mr. Brown swore out a complaint and had Mr. Brouillette brought before Justice Brant on Wednesday. The evidence adduced being insufficient to establish the fact that the purse picked up was Mr. Brown's, the case was dismissed—the county paying the costs.

GRAND LODGE, I. O. O. F.—The Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of Oregon, completed its labors and adjourned at about [illegible] o'clock A. M. yesterday, having protracted its session from the evening of Thursday in order to give members a chance to get off on the morning boats yesterday. The Grand Officers elected and installed on Thursday are as follows: Silas J. Day, of Jacksonville, Most Worthy Grand Master; J. M. Bacon, of Oregon City, R. W. Deputy Grand Master; Wm. Dierdorff, of Portland, R. W. Grand Warden; Charles N. Terry, of Salem, R. W. Grand Secretary; J. R. Moores, of Salem, R. W. Grand Treasurer; W. P. Burns, of Oregon City, and E. W. Bristow, of Spencer Butte, Grand Representatives.

The Grand Lodge appointed a committee to make all necessary arrangements for a grand celebration of the 50th anniversary of the order, at Salem, on the 26th of April, 1869, in which the entire membership of the order in the State is invited to participate.

During the session a rule was adopted prohibiting the use of intoxicating liquors at any party, celebration or other meeting of members of the order, connected with or where the name of the order shall be used.

Past Grand J. H. [illegible] of Samaritan Lodge No. 2, was appointed District D. G. M. for the district comprising Samaritan Lodge No. 16, Vancouver Lodge, W. T., No. 3, and Orient Lodge No. 17.

Past Grand Louis Goodman was appointed District D. G. M. for Minerva Lodge No. 19, [illegible] of Portland.

The next Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge will be held at Salem, on the 27th April, 1869.

The above are all of the proceedings proper to be made public, which we have been able, thus far, to procure.

INDEBTEDNESS OF CLARK CO., W. T.—The Register says: Sheriff Durgan returned on Saturday evening from the Sound, where he had gone to take William Devine and John Hayden, convicted at the late term of the court, for complicity in the affray at Chinook, where he turned them over to the proper authorities. In accordance with a request of the County Commissioners Mr. Durgan called at the office of the Territorial Secretary and examined the original bill relative to the levying of a special tax for the extinguishment of the county indebtedness. The original was found to contain the same fatal defect (reading five mills on the hundred instead of five mills on the dollar) as the copies, and therefore is [illegible] a dead letter. The aggregate of all taxes, including that for current expenses, will reach the magnificent sum of seventy seven dollars. The County Commissioners have no alternative than to bide their time and await the action of Congress. That body has been petitioned to set aside the new law, and in case of compliance the old law will be thereby revived, and the county finances will be in exactly the same position they were before the passage of the recent law. Who is to blame for this condition of affairs? Could it have happened accidentally? It savors strongly of the same manipulation as our defective Capital bill.

ONE HUNDRED GUNS FOR GRANT AND COLFAX.—When the news of the nomination of Grant and Colfax was received here, Thursday evening, there was a very general expression by Union men, of enthusiastic joy. Immediate preparations were put in train to fire a hundred guns, but [illegible] patent gunners had to be sent for, and the materials for firing had to be gathered, cartridges made, etc.—all involving much work and considerable time—and thus the salute was delayed till nearly or quite daylight yesterday morning. Through the active agency of Mr. [illegible] and a few others however, everything was got in readiness and between three and four o'clock, the firing began and continued for an hour or more. The first 100 guns for Grant and Colfax were fired in Portland before one-half the people were aware of the nominations.

DESERTIONS.—We learn that about twenty-five or thirty of the soldiers at Ft. Lapwai have deserted within the past few days. They belong to Capt. Lester's Co. of the 8th U. S. Cavalry, and were under orders to march to Arizona, upon being relieved by Capt. Sumner's Co. of the 1st U. S. Cavalry. Capt. Sumner, upon his arrival at Ft. Lapwai last week, found that there were only about twenty five of Capt. Lester's men remaining. Of [illegible], the departure of the company was delayed, and [illegible] are being employed to capture the deserters. The men are said to have run away because they did not fancy the idea of going to Arizona.

SENSATION STORY SPOILED.—A couple of city papers have been having a "good thing" as they supposed, for the last two days in the way of an item relative to an alleged elopement of a colored couple from this place and their marriage at Oregon City. There was neither elopement nor wedding about the affair. The girl simply went to Salem, her departure it is said being attributable to an [illegible] at home. Marshal Jacobi, at the instance of her mother, went after her and brought her back. She was entirely unattended at Salem, and there seems not to have been the least touch of the tender sentiment in the whole affair.

FREIGHT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The bark Almatia, A. E. [illegible], master, left her dock last evening for [illegible], having on board the following freight for San Francisco: 5,000 qr sks flour, 1,750 bags wheat, 52 sks middlings, 1,050 sks oats, 30 bbls mess beef, 100 cases lard, 3 bbls and 397 hf bbls dried apples, 8 hlf bbls dried plums, 22 empty carboys, 18 bbls, 8 kits and 29 hlf bbls salmon, 40 bxs eggs, 5 cases bacon, 6 pkgs merchandise, 10 [illegible], 7 brandy cases, 1 hlf bbl currants, 45 bbls cider.

THE INDIANS AT SIMCOE.—Rev. Father Wilbur, agent at Simcoe Reservation, reports a very hopeful state of affairs among the half dozen tribes associated there. They have two churches, quite a number of shops, a saw mill, grist mill, etc., and are doing well upon their farms. They have over 2,000 acres sown to wheat, and the prospects for a good crop are flattering. Father Wilbur thinks they are making decided advancement in christianity and civilization.

UNPAID LETTERS.—The following letters are retained in the Postoffice for prepayment of postage: Owen Trade, Oregon City, Or.; Frank Roberts, Dalles, Or.; J. R. Gill & Co., Salem, Ogn.; Paul C. Craft, Salem, Ogn.; G. E. Hodgkins, Dalles, Ogn.; Daniel McEacheam, Idaho City, I. T.; John O. Karrel, Boise City, I. T.; Messrs. J. G. Hodge, San Francisco, Cal.; F. R. Thomas, Victoria, V. I.; Clara L. Stephens, Ithica, N. Y.

A NEW VENTURE IN AN OLD TRADE.—Mr. W. W. Spaulding, of the firm of Spaulding & Kline, left for Victoria last evening by the Wright, taking along 150 head of [illegible] and ten head of beef cattle, which he proposes to dispose of in the Victoria market. For the last year very little trade of this kind has been pursued; but the time was when it was very lucrative. We hope it may be revived.

PORTLAND LIBRARY.—The following new books have been added to the Portland Library: Gemma, by Trollope; The People the Sovereigns, by Monroe; A Journey in Brazil, by Agassiz; On the Heights, by Auerbach; The Pupils of St. John the Divine; The Massacre of St. Bartholomew; Abraham Page, Esq. Catalogues of the library can be had at the book stores.

FREIGHT FOR VICTORIA.—The steamship Geo. S. Wright which sailed for Victoria last evening, took the following freight: 2 crates crockery, 1 bale mdse, 5 cases lard, 70 boxes apples, 150 sks oats, 90 bags wheat, 400 qr sks flour, 25 gunnies bacon, 3 boxes butter, 3 coops fowls, 150 mutton sheep, 10 head beef cattle, 10 hogs and 175 pkges mdse for Neah Bay.

OREGON PRODUCTS.—Arrived yesterday per steamer Senator, 13 boxes eggs, 7 hlf bbls butter, 147 sks oats, 28 hlf bbls dried apples, 23 boxes unspecified, 40 gunnies and 6 cases bacon, 600 qr sks flour, and 2 boxes plants. Per Minnet, 24 qr sks flour, 25 hlf bbls cider, and 45 sks [illegible]. Per Alert, 35 sacks flour, 300 sacks oats, 294 sacks wheat, 1 bale mdse.

QUARTERLY MEETINGS.—Quarterly meeting services will be held at East Portland M. E. Church at 2 P. M. to-day and in the afternoon and evening to-morrow. Quarterly meeting services will be held in the M. E. Church, in this city, on Saturday and Sunday of next week. Services at 2 P. M., on Saturday, and at the usual hours on Sunday.

PASSENGERS FOR VICTORIA.—The steamship Geo. S. Wright, Henry Langdon commander, sailed for Victoria last evening with the following list of passengers: Mrs. Mason and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Spaulding and child, Mrs. Ruth Mason Johnson, Jas. Trayson, Rev. Mr. Berns, Miss Josephine Smith, and 10 others.

[illegible]—The regular semi-monthly soiree at Prof. [illegible]'s dancing hall took place last evening on which occasion a large party, as usual, enjoyed themselves till a late hour. The Professor's soirees are always well attended and always pleasant.

ADDITIONAL FREIGHT.—The bark Almatia will take from the barrel factory at St. Johns, [illegible] of staves and headings, at Springville, 1,000 sacks wheat [illegible]. She will be ready [illegible] Monday [illegible] to be towed to Astoria.

CAMP MEETINGS.—Camp meetings, to be held by ministers of the M. E. Church, have been appointed at Powell's Valley, to begin on the 20th of June, and near Centerville, Washington county, to begin on the 18th of June.

THAT'S WHAT'S THE MATTER.—The crowd at [illegible] Front street yesterday was not caused by the reception of political news from the East, but was a rush to Daly's for his Straw and Panama Hats.

MEN OF THE UNION REPUBLICAN PARTY, supporters of Grant and Colfax, get ready and be on hand on Monday night to participate in the grand demonstration. It is [illegible] to carry the war [illegible] into the enemy's works.

REV. C. A. BUCKBEE, Secretary of the American Bible Union, will present the claims of that Society in the Baptist Church on Sabbath morning, 24th inst.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.—The Union Sunday School [illegible] will go [illegible] to-day, starting at 8 o'clock from Vaughn's wharf.

BASE BALL PRACTICE.—The Spartans will meet for practice this afternoon at 4 o'clock on their grounds in East Portland.

A STREET SCENE.—A gentleman was walking down Front street yesterday, very finely dressed, wearing a Ventilated Straw [illegible] Hat, which suited his style of dress first rate. A man from the opposite side, approached him, asking, "Friend, where did you get your hat from? I would like to get one just like it." "I bought it of Meussdorffer, and I have bought my hats of them ever since I arrived on the coast, first in San Francisco, then in Sacramento, and in Marysville, where I got my hats [illegible] in their store, they never charging [illegible]. Finally I went to Sacramento, where I purchased the hat of Meussdorffer which I wore yesterday. Last steamer brought me up to Portland, and [illegible] was too heavy for the warm weather, and I was compelled to call on Meussdorffer again, and got this hat. I came very near [illegible] losing this hat, [illegible] having so many different styles that suited me [illegible] I liked best. I would advise [illegible] to call [illegible] for he said he had only a few dozen left." The gentleman immediately started for Meussdorffer's Hat Store.

LECTURE.—The Spirit of Charles Wesley will speak through the mediumship of A. A. Cleveland at Oro Fino Hall on Sunday evening, May 24, at half past 7 o'clock. Subject: [illegible] called.

TO THOSE IN WANT OF PHOTOGRAPHS, we would say that now is a first rate time to visit Buchtel's Gallery, where the latest and finest styles may be had. J. H. Montgomery, operator.

TEETH EXTRACTED
AND PAIN MITIGATED
By Dr. Richardson's Apparatus, Lately Improved by Dr. Koehler, with Ether Spray.

WILLIAM KOEHLER,
DENTIST.

OFFICE AND RESIDENCE, Southwest corner Front and Yamhill Streets, opposite E. J. Northrup & Co's Hardware Store.

I am now making, amongst numerous other styles of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, the improved Vulcanite Plates of Dr. G. W. Cole's Patent, patented Dec. 3, 1867, the improvement of which consists in lining the entire contact surface with fine gold. It not only makes the plate double as strong and cleanlier than the common Vulcanite Plate. It also can by it be made considerably thinner and lighter, whereas the price is but little above that for common plates. Call and see specimens.

N. B.—Dentists wishing to secure the office right for Dr. G. W. Cole's Improved Vulcanite Plates can have it made out to them by applying to this office.

N. B.—To strangers I would say, that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

A THRILLING INCIDENT
In the missionary life of Mrs. Ingalls, in Burmah, as well told in the Baptist Messenger, relating how she was sent for to visit one of the Buddhist high priests, who had been nearly killed, and how, while in the most holy place in their temple, where none but the priests had ever before been admitted, she was permitted unrebuked to use for him the sacred vessels, which none but the high priest dare touch, and to even overturn and sit on one of their gods to rest, all through the magic influence of the Pain Killer, called by them the "God medicine," so successfully had she used it in curing them many diseases, some of them peculiar to their fatal in that climate, among which were cholera, liver complaint, dyspepsia, the bites of venomous reptiles, &c. This speaks volumes for the Pain Killer. Try it, Try it.

Rev. J. E. Clough, Missionary at Ongole, Southern India, writes: "We esteem your Pain Killer very highly for scorpion stings, cholera, &c., and I cannot very well get along without it."

Rev. I. D. Colburn, Missionary at Tavoy, Burmah, writes: "I shall be happy to assist in extending a knowledge of a remedy so speedy and effectual." m16d&w1m

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers;
Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels,
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant, but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud is discovered only after a trial, and only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers will be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

A Shocking Revelation of Democratic Frauds in Pennsylvania—Forged Naturalization Papers Manufactured—A Witness Murdered

(From the Philadelphia North American, April 13.)

A contested election case has occupied much of the time of the Senate at the present term of the Pennsylvania Legislature, and has concluded with the ousting of the Democratic incumbent, Samuel T. Shugart, and the swearing in of the Republican contestant, John B. Robinson, as the representative of the Senatorial District composed of Blair, Huntingdon, Centre, Mifflin, Juniata and Perry counties. Blair and Huntingdon have always given very strong Republican majorities at every election. Mifflin, Juniata and Perry are doubtful counties at all times. Centre county gives a reliable Democratic majority at all times, but not enough honestly to carry the district against such majorities as Blair and Huntingdon pile up. At the last election it was deemed desirable to increase the Democratic strength in the Senate, and accordingly great efforts were made to carry every District that was supposed to be at all vulnerable.

Among the rest was this large and central district, and having control of the polls in Centre county, the Democratic State Committee made arrangements to do the thing up good and strong there, and in so doing, elect Judge Sharswood to the Supreme Court. How it was done the committee in the contested case have ducted after examining three hundred and eighty witnesses, whose evidence will make a printed volume as large as the Senate journal. It appears from these revelations that at the late election forged naturalization papers were manufactured in Philadelphia and sent to trusty agents in various parts of the State as freely as they were in 1866. These papers were soaked in coffee to give them an appearance of age, and it is in evidence that they were used in great numbers in Luzerne county, where the Democratic majority shows the result.

So abundant were they in that county, that a full supply was obtained here for the frauds perpetrated in Centre county. They bore the seal of the Court of Luzerne and the signature of the Prothonotary, M. J. Philbin, who, of course, must have been cognizant of the affair. In Centre county there were not alien or unnaturalized foreigners to suffice for the work, but a railroad was in process of construction in an adjoining county, on which a large number of that class of Irish were employed under a boss named Mark Leddy, in whose hands the forged naturalization papers were put, and he distributed them. A little more than ten days before the election his employees marched in a body to Philipsburg, squatted at the various hotels, their board provided them, their names assessed as voters, and prepared tickets furnished them, and on election day they went in a body to the polls, swore their votes through, and no doubt were paid for it.

To prevent the exposure of these doings, the most desperate exertions were made, and apparently under the direction of the Democratic State Committee. One witness was murdered in cold blood while on his return home, after having testified before the committee of investigation. A priest testified before the committee to having, after correspondence with the State Committee, paid a witness five hundred dollars to leave the State, and remain away until the inquiry should be over. A third witness, named Jones, was hidden away in a stable, and his food carried to him daily from the hotel where a majority of the Irishmen had been quartered, while a fourth was rescued [illegible] by one of the [illegible] contractors, and escaped.

All these schemes failed to prevent a thorough exposure of the frauds. The Senator who held his seat by this base contrivance has been ousted, and Mr. Robinson his Republican competitor put in his place. It was by such schemes as this that the State of Pennsylvania elected a Judge of the Supreme Court. But our greatest regret is to find the Democratic State Committee made responsible for such atrocious frauds. Bodies of so much political importance ought to be free from suspicion. But this one appears to be an engine for [illegible] the people of Pennsylvania out of their rights, and deserves to be stamped with the severest reprobation of all honorable men.

[illegible] to tell a girl that beauty is of no value—dress of no value. Beauty [illegible] whole prospects in life may often depend upon a new gown, or a becoming bonnet, and if she has five grains of common sense, she will find this out. The great thing is to teach her just value, and that there must be something better under the bonnet than a pretty face for real happiness. But never sacrifice truth.

The railroads terminating at Chicago will pass delegates to and from the Republican National Convention free of charge, upon the application of the chairman of each State Republican Central Committee for a sufficient number of tickets for their respective delegations.

It is lucky for a fellow to have a queen for a mother. Prince Alfred went into the mines at Bells, Australia, and dug out gold nuggets. They had been carefully placed there for that purpose.

SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

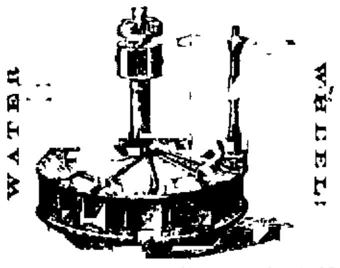
LEFFEL'S
AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE



THESE WHEELS, UNEQUALLED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States or the world, have been fully tested in this coast, many being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c., &c.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern: I hereby give notice that the so-called "Shipley's Pacific Turbine Water Wheel" is a direct infringement and copy of the "James Leffel's American Double Turbine Water Wheel," and its manufacture and use is hereby prohibited. Any person or persons making, using, constructing or vending said Water Wheels make themselves liable to heavy damages and penalties. Parties interested will take notice, for I shall prosecute said infringements to the utmost extent of the law.

That all may know I mean what I say, and am not playing "bluff," I give the following extract from a legal opinion on this subject from one of the most eminent Patent Attorneys in the United States:

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17, 1868.

"MR. A. MYERS—In accordance with your request, we have examined the patents of Shipley on Water Wheels, and are clearly of the opinion that they both infringe the Leffel patents. In both of Shipley's Wheels he uses the upper and lower tiers of buckets precisely as Leffel does, and in this he clearly infringes. The fact that Shipley has applied another series of buckets in addition to those used by Leffel does not relieve him from the consequences of infringement at all. He has no right to use those two tiers of buckets, whether alone or with a third, or any other number of tiers added. It is a clear infringement. Respectfully yours, DODGE & MUNN."

I hereby give notice that I will prosecute every infringement on our Patents, whether it is the maker, user, buyer or seller. Every infringement, whether our claims are used in whole or in part, will be prosecuted.
A. MYERS.

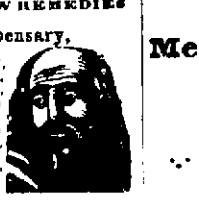
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

MANUFACTURERS OF
SHIPLEY'S PATENT PACIFIC
TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

OF WHICH THE ABOVE IS AN ILLUSTRATION, has FOUR SETS OF BUCKETS, AND USES THREE-FOURTHS OF THE WATER TRICK.

The old high priced, unequalled and unrivalled wheel has been PLAYED OUT by a fair working trial made by Mr. H. Kelly, at his saw mill, and the public can see what he says as to the capacity of the two wheels in the following testimonial over his own signature.

MR. H. W. SHIPLEY—Sir: In reply to your inquiry as to how I like your Pacific Turbine Wheel, I have to say that I have used one over-shot and three Leffel wheels—10, 13 and 15 inch diameters. When I substituted your 15 inch wheel for the 13 inch Leffell wheel, though unfinished it worked the machinery like a top, using 12 ft of water per minute more than the 13 inch Leffell. At your request I subsequently took your wheel out that it might be [illegible] then I put in a 15-inch Leffell, and it gave no better power than yours while it used 52 cubic feet more water per minute. After some months I replaced your wheel and am still using it with the most satisfactory results. I have subjected it to some severe tests. For instance, while running the circular saw in a log which squared 15 inches, I added the planer with a 2 inch knife, cutting from one-eighth to one fourth of an inch depth with out the least slacking the speed. After thorough tests of both wheels I am satisfied that your wheel with gates one-eighth of an inch open gives as much power as the Leffell with gates one third open. At half gate your wheel gives double the power of the Leffel at half gate. At full gate the power of yours exceeds that of the Leffel, by from ten to twelve per cent. At quarter gate the Leffel holds no comparison with yours at quarter gate.

N. B. Mr. Shipley was not present at either of the trials of his wheel, he being sick at the first and absent from the State, at the second trial.

Medical and Surgical INSTITUTE.

⁂ CONSULTATION IN ALL CASES, FREE.

⁂ CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.

⁂ IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of this Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.
